

Holmes Camp & Retreat Center

Booking Guide

Effective 4/1/2023

PLEASE REVIEW THIS CAREFULLY, AS SOME PRICES AND POLICIES HAVE CHANGED.

Holmes Camp & Retreat Center sits on over 500 acres of hills, forest, and wetlands in the Hudson Valley, less than two hours from New York City. Facilities include a small conference center with lodging, dorms, cabins, outdoor and indoor meeting spaces, and rustic youth summer camp facilities. Four lakes and over fifteen miles of trails onsite, as well as nearby landmarks and state parks provide ample opportunities for recreation and renewal.

Our core values—faith, education, conservation, community, recreation, hospitality, and renewal—guide us in serving individuals, churches, nonprofits, and other groups as we carry out our mission of:

Educate | Empower | Renew

A central part of carrying out that mission is empowering churches, youth organizations, and other non-profits in their own mission by offering comfortable and affordable lodging, meeting space, and programming support for their own programs and retreats.

Holmes Camp & Retreat Center is a ministry of the Presbyterian Conference Association, and is affiliated with the Presbyteries of Long Island, Hudson River, and New York City of the Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.). Your group does not need to be associated with the Presbyterian church, or identify with a faith to attend. In addition to faith affiliated groups Holmes Camp & Retreat Center serves nonprofits, community organizations, scouting groups, and values compatible social groups and corporate clients.

General Booking Policies

- Final numbers and reservation details, including dietary restrictions for groups who have purchased meals, are due no later than two weeks prior to arrival.
- Bookings are typically a minimum of two nights. Exceptions considered on a case-by-case basis and may carry an additional fee.
- Check-in time is 4:00pm. Lodging check-out is 10:00am. When available, early check-in or late check-out must be arranged during the reservation process.
- Lodging facilities are booked for the full duration of your event; there is no discount for part-time attendees.
- Youth events must maintain a ratio of 1 adult leader per 8 youth participants. Compliance with any applicable New York State laws, guidelines, or permitting for youth activities are the sole responsibility of the group and not Holmes Camp & Retreat Center.
- Overnight guests cannot exceed the maximum lodging occupancy of a facility, determined by bed count: 1 person per twin or cot size bed, and 2 people per full or queen size bed.
- The User Group will provide Liability Insurance Coverage. Certificate of Insurance (COI) naming Holmes Camp and Retreat Center (PCA, Inc.) as an additional insured must be submitted to Holmes at least two weeks prior to arrival.
- All arrangements relating to a group or event are to be included on a single contract and facilitated by a single primary contact.
- Contract holder must be 21 years of age.

- Published rates are not guaranteed until confirmed with a contract.
- A non-refundable deposit of 15% is due with your signed contract.
- An additional 25% is due six weeks before arrival. The remaining balance is due one week before arrival.
- An additional fee will be charged for damage or for spaces left unnecessarily and excessively dirty.
- All groups affiliated with The Presbyterian Church (U.S.A) are eligible for a 10% discount upon request.

Don's Diner is a summer camp style dining hall that includes a commercial kitchen, two bathrooms, and an office. Upper South Cabin and Lower South Cabin are camp bunkhouses each with four bedrooms, four bathrooms, and a capacity of 32.

South Unit is only available during the summer months, and is reserved primarily for registered youth summer camps.

Inquire for details.

Meeting Spaces

Meeting spaces are available in The Agape Center, Vinik Hilltop, and at the Westminster Lodge.

The Westminster Lodge is a large, rustic hall on the shores of Westminster Lake, and features a stage, a large fireplace, a large outdoor picnic area, and restrooms.

Robinson features a pavilion with bathrooms, charcoal grills, a large fireplace, an outdoor picnic area, and a lakeside outdoor chapel. Tent camping is also available at Robinson; please call to inquire.

One complimentary meeting space—typically in the same building—is included at no charge with the rental of five rooms in The Agape Center or Vinik Hilltop. The rental of 10 rooms in either building will include all meeting spaces in the building (meeting spaces do not include the main dining room).

Additional meeting space, meeting space for groups lodged in other buildings, and day-use of meeting spaces is considered based on availability; lodging groups will have priority in scheduling of meeting spaces. Meeting spaces for groups lodging on site will be reserved for the duration of the event, using the group's regular check-in and check-out times.

A single set-up is included with each meeting space. Additional set-ups and teardowns are available for a fee. Please inform Holmes of your set-up needs at least two weeks prior to arrival.

Holmes Camp & Retreat Center can accommodate limited dietary requests, including vegetarian, vegan, gluten-free, and non-dairy. Such requests must be communicated to Holmes at least two weeks prior to arrival. Additional allergies, intolerances, and preferences will be accommodated as able. However, kitchen facilities are not allergen free; even with extensive employee training there remains the risk of contamination. Additionally commercial food manufacturers may also change the formulation or handling of foods at any time. Guests should direct any questions about allergens or ingredients in our menu items to food service staff.

External catering may be allowed on a case-by-case basis. It is the guest groups responsibility to ensure that the caterer is compliant with all applicable laws, health and safety guidelines, and permitting. The caterer must provide Holmes Camp & Retreat Center with a certificate of insurance and a copy of their ServSafe Manager Certificate or equivalent.

¹ Groups of less than 12 people may request to join already scheduled meals when available.

² On a case-by-case meal service for less than twelve people may be available for a fee. This must be arranged in advance.

³ Sack lunches are to be picked up in the dining hall unless otherwise arranged. Sack lunches typically include a sandwich or wrap, beverage, chips, whole fruit, and cookie or granola bar.

Programs & Activities

Holmes Camp & Retreat Center offers a variety of programs and activities for your group during your stay. Activities available vary depending on season, staffing, and group size and ability. Examples of some potential activities include: guided hikes, nature walks, introduction to geocaching, canoeing and boating, arts & crafts, icebreakers, team building, and more. We can work with you to adapt most activities to support your groups goals and outcomes. Please inquire about what is available during your stay.

Because many activities require special staffing or materials we encourage you to book as far ahead of time as possible. Activities may not be booked less than two weeks before arrival. Waterfront activities may not be booked less than four weeks before arrival.

Most activities are $185 for the first 90 minutes, and $100 for each additional hour for up to 15 people.
